PUBLIC EDUCATION'S SOCIAL CONTRACT

SOCIAL CONTRACT: The implicit agreement to cooperate for a social benefit -- where we work together for the collective good.

- Public education represents a vital social contract between schools and the community.
- Shared commitment to nurturing every child's potential, preparing students to thrive and meaningfully contribute to society.
- Our schools are not just centers of academic learning -- they are foundational institutions that reflect the values, hopes, and aspirations of our community.

My 2024-2025 Reflections

JUNE 9, 2025 / DAVE EBERWEIN / EDIT

There's so much I am grateful for as Superintendent. But if I had to name just one thing that stands out, it's this: I get to be part of a professional community that never stops striving to be better. Every day I'm surrounded by people who challenge and inspire me to grow — people who believe deeply in creating spaces where every learner can thrive. Together, we're not just educators. We're leaders. And we're building something meaningful.
